

Don't You Think Rainbows are Beautiful?

Online Workshop

A session on the beauty of diversity. This session focuses on how we view and interact with others in our world. Participants will discuss differences, family dynamics, and community involvement and relate these to the interactions we have each day. Techniques to handle situations respectfully will also be discussed. Participants will be asked to fill out a questionnaire in advance in order to ensure the session responds directly to their current needs.

When: December 7th , 2016

Time: 6:30pm-8:30pm (log on at 6:00pm) 2PD Hours

Where: Your home, library or local NSCC campus. All you need is internet and an email address.

Cost: $30(tax included)

Class #: 071216

Facilitator: Michelle Doucette has worked in the Early Childhood Education field in a variety of positions over the last 20 + years. She is currently faculty at the Nova Scotia Community College in the Early Childhood Education Program, teaching online and face to face courses as well as a facilitator of the Roots of Empathy Program and continues to present workshops to the sector, parents and the community.

To register send completed registration form along with payment no later than 2 weeks prior to start date (Nov 23).

We need a valid email address on the registration form to send out the workshop link.

Registration form can be downloaded at <http://www.ecdsc.nsc.ca/burrridge.html>

For further information contact: ECDSC 742-7832 or melissa.vail@nsc.ca